

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
OCTOBER 1, 2008 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2008

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast a "Community Calendar" and public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

JIM AND JADE IN THE MORNING: A daily two-hour broadcast hosted by news anchors Jim Berry and Jade Alexander focusing on local, national and international news, information and interviews with local community leaders and experts. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour weekly public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

MY33 NEWS FEATURE REPORTS- Special and series reports focusing on important local issues. These reports air during selected CBS4 News broadcasts. Duration: Each part is approximately three minutes. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: Topics in this category include: the American Entrepreneur project; program for low-income girls; issues regarding Amendment 8 for local colleges; domestic partners rights; benefit for children's charities; careers in aviation; food drive for needy families; program for teenage mothers; successful teen business owners; program for children in family court; and program providing prom dresses for teen girls in foster care.

JIM & JADE IN THE MORNING: 10/3, 7AM. Bob Sutton, Principal, American Entrepreneurs, Vince Boccard, Vice Mayor of City of Coral Springs and Steven Gerard, student discussed the American Entrepreneurs educational project providing students the opportunity to complete high school while acquiring occupational and business skills. 10/5, 7 AM. Sandra Millan, Uniquely Me Program Coordinator for the Girl Scouts of South Florida, and teens Karina Rodriguez, Luna Zanini, and Jacqueline Martinez discussed this program that is giving low-income girls help with the traditional Hispanic 15th birthday "Quinces" celebration. 10/8, 7 AM. Dr. Jose Vicente, Miami-Dade College North Campus President, discussed the effect that the passing of Amendment 8 by Florida voters would have on the state's community colleges. 10/9, 7 AM. Katie Phang, legal expert, discussed issues relating to the rights of domestic partners in Florida. 10/10, 7 AM. Ron Catronio, Executive Director, Big Bike Riders Association and members Rick Morales, Patrick and Kristi Sandner discussed their Celebration of Smiles event which benefits a number of local children's charities. 10/16, 7 AM. Captain Barrington Irving discussed his record-breaking flight experiences and the Aviation Career Fair that he helped organize to encourage more young people to get into careers in aviation. 10/17, 7 AM. Dale Hirsch, Executive Director of Volunteer Broward, discussed the Field of Food campaign to collect food donations for needy families in Broward County. FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 11/3, 2:30 PM. Jada Hunter, Executive Director; Mary Alessi, Founder; and Shanteria Moorner, Mercy House program graduate discussed how this local non-profit organization helps teenage mothers make it through the challenges of pregnancy. In another segment, Alex Horn, Executive Director, National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurs; Alex Niles, owner of Niles Custom Guitar Shop; and Jessica Cervantes, owner of Popsy Cakes Creations discussed businesses owned by teens and the recognition that teen business owners are receiving from the National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurs for their success. 12/14, 2:30 PM. Michele Gillen, CBS4 News Chief Investigative Reporter and Founder of Adopt-A-Bear discussed her initiative to provide plush bears to children involved in family court cases for therapeutic purposes through individual "adoption" donations. Lindsey Giambatista, Founder of Taylor's Closet discussed her program that provides free prom dresses and wardrobes to teens in foster care.

POLITICS/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: restoring voting rights for ex-felons; college students views on VP Debate; video project to involve youth in politics; State Representatives expectations of presidential debates; review of various local corruption cases; and campaign for Hispanic voters.

JIM & JADE IN THE MORNING: 10/2, 7AM. Attorney Katie Phang discussed how ex-felons may be able to restore their voting rights. 10/3, 7 AM. Michael Worley, Vice President of Barry University Young Democrats and Michael Hodges, Political Science student at Broward College and a registered Republican provided their views on the Vice Presidential Debate. 10/10, 7 AM. Noah Grey, creator of the Virgin Voting video project, discussed how his video is designed to help young voters get involved in the electoral process. 10/15, 7 AM. Dan Gelber, Democrat State Representative and Juan Carlos Planas, Republican State Representative discussed their expectations of the upcoming Presidential debate. In another segment, Judge Karen Mills Francis, of the Judge Karen syndicated show, discussed the corruption case of former Broward County Sheriff Ken Jenne, his new job and an investigation into improper conduct between a judge and a lawyer on a local murder case. 10/16, 7 AM. Rapper Pit Bull (Armando Christian Perez) discussed his involvement with Voto Latino, an organization that encourages U.S. Hispanics to register and vote.

CULTURE/INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: Topics in this category: plans for Miami Dolphins Hispanic Heritage Celebration; history and contributions of Colombian community to South Florida; Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival; and program to raise funds for local charities.

JIM & JADE IN THE MORNING: 10/3, 7 AM. Miami Dolphins former kicker Fuad Reveiz discussed his role as Chairman of the team's Hispanic Heritage Celebration festivities of October 5 at Miami Dolphins Stadium. Dr. Paul George, South Florida historian, discussed the history and accomplishments of the Colombian community in South Florida. 10/5, 7 AM. In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, Fanny Lu, Colombian singer discussed her culture and their contributions to South Florida. 10/13, 7 AM. Hal Axler, Executive Director, Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival, discussed this year's festival and the list of international and domestic films to be show in South Florida during this important cultural event. 10/15, 7 AM. Christie Wolfe and Christie Quinoes-Spurling, members of the Junior League of Miami discussed their Shopping Card for a Cause campaign that raises funds for literacy and domestic violence awareness programs in South Florida.

ECONOMY/CONSUMER RIGHTS: Topics in this category include: benefits of personal financial plans, the new middle class; advice on large purchases in a bad economy; effect of economic crisis on women; new businesses surviving a bad economy; tips for surviving local and national economic outlook; and eviction process and rental leasing terms.

JIM & JADE IN THE MORNING: 10/2, 7AM. Shani Curry, Financial Advisor discussed how every consumer should have a financial plan, especially during a bad economy. 10/5, 7 AM. Hugh Gladwin, Professional of Sociology and Anthropology at FIU discussed the new middle class, how the living standards have changed and how the presidential candidates will affect middle class Americans. In another segment, Shani Curry, Financial Advisor provided advice on how consumers should handle large purchases such as cars and real estate property during a weak economy. 10/8, 7 AM. Kaia Calbeck, Psychologist, discussed how the stress of the economic problems can affect women's mental health and what women can do to relief anxiety. 10/9, 7 AM. David Garcia, new business owner Great Wraps franchise, discussed how the economic problems are affecting his new enterprise. 10/13, 7 AM. Lane Jones, Financial Advisor, provided an update on the local and national economic outlook and provided financial tips for consumers. 10/16, 7 AM. Attorney Katie Phang explained the eviction process as well as how to get out of rental agreements.